

SAMUEL R. MARTILLOTTA

The people and the professionalism of the firm are exemplary. We care about our clients and the matters to which we are entrusted. We are driven to produce positive and favorable results, to know our clients' businesses and needs, and to understand how best we can serve them.

Mr. Martillotta has significant experience in environmental and safety matters, including assuring compliance with current governing regulations and addressing federal, state and local regulatory issues. His practice also focuses on toxic tort litigation, involving the defense of asbestos litigation in both state and federal courts.

He is licensed in the State of Ohio and the United States District Court, Northern District.

Sam's personal focus is family and faith. He serves on his church's Board of Elders and is involved in its Men's Ministries and Adult Ministries Programs. He also likes to read, watch baseball and play golf. Feel like talking? Sam enjoys listening to others' life stories.

Practice Areas

- Environmental
- General Civil Litigation

Education

- B.A. from Ohio Wesleyan University
- J.D. from the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, Cleveland State University

Involvement

- Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association
- Board of the Kylie Jane Long Foundation for Pediatric Patients and Families