

SANDRA J. BRANTLEY

What sets Mansour Gavin apart? The integrity of the attorneys, the experience and sophistication of the firm, and the practical approach to resolving complicated issues. I focus on my clients to provide them with the attention they want and deserve, for the solutions they require.

Ms. Brantley is an experienced fiduciary, trust and estate lawyer with over 25 years of practice. As a former Senior Counsel for National City Bank (now PNC Bank, N.A), she has concentrated her practice on advising trustees, executors and investment managers regarding their respective duties and liabilities. Additionally, Ms. Brantley has extensive experience in estate planning and probate matters.

Ms. Brantley advises both corporate and individual trustees regarding duties and liabilities, and advises individuals regarding estate planning matters.

She is an author of the Ohio Trust Code, a speaker on the Ohio Trust Code, and is licensed in the State of Ohio.

Sandra resides in Bay Village with her family. She is an avid gardener, enjoys reading and maintaining relationships with family and friends.
