

ADAM R. UTH

A litigator's job is to manage the risks and opportunities of each dispute intelligently and prudently.

auth@mggmlpa.com

Adam Uth is an associate in the firm's litigation group focusing on real estate matters. He has considerable experience representing businesses in various types of litigation and has secured favorable outcomes at both the trial and appellate levels. Adam also has experience providing compliance analysis, both in the private sector and for the City of Shaker Heights.

Adam earned his J.D. from the University of Michigan School of Law and a B.A. from York University. He was admitted to the Ohio Bar in 2017.

Before attending law school, Adam lived in northeast Japan for several years. He speaks and writes Japanese fluently. He is a member of the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association.

Practice Areas

Civil Litigation

Real Estate and Land Use

Education

J.D., University of Michigan School of Law

B.A., York University