Mr. Coyne has served on the Board of Directors for the Lincoln Institute of Land Policy in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and the Ohio Canal Corridor. He currently serves as Chairman of the Board of St. Vincent Charity Community Health Center in Cleveland, Ohio and is a member of the Board of Trustees for Bluecoats, Inc., a non-profit organization that supports the families of Cuyahoga County safety officers who have lost their lives or been disabled in the line of duty.

A sought-after speaker, Tony frequently lectures at programs and events hosted by organizations such as the National Business Institute, Lorman Education Series, the Cleveland and Ohio State Bar Associations, the Ohio Planning Conference, CLE International's Seminar on Eminent Domain, the Urban Land Institute, the Cuyahoga County Law Director's Association, and the International Council of Shopping Centers. He regularly addresses topics including eminent domain, zoning and land use, and municipal law.

Mr. Coyne is deeply involved in the community, having served on the Planning Commission for the City of Cleveland from 1990-2015, including 15 years as Chairman. Additionally, he was appointed by Mayor Frank Jackson to chair the Group Plan Commission of the City of Cleveland, where he currently holds a board membership. During his tenure as chairman of the Group Plan Commission, significant developments took place, including the creation of a multimillion-dollar public spaces improvement and usage plan for downtown Cleveland. This initiative resulted in a $50 million renovation of Public Square, enhancements to the downtown MALL, and inception of fundraising and initial design efforts for a pedestrian bridge connecting the MALL to the lakefront. The reopening of Public Square in 2016 garnered national acclaim for design, use, and programming.

Tony enjoys spending time with his wife Rachelle and their family. An avid outdoor enthusiast, he relishes activities such as golfing, bicycling and jogging. Additionally, he appreciates the rich cultural and artistic offerings that Cleveland provides. Tony resides in Ohio City and embraces the vibrant community and diverse experiences it offers.
