MANSOURGAVIN LPA

MICHELE M. KERLING

mkerling@mggmlpa.com

Michele Kerling is a litigation paralegal specializing in e-discovery and large-scale document productions. She has served as the Intellectual Property paralegal at Mansour Gavin for over 10 years and has been with the firm since 1990.

With more than 25 years of experience in her role, Michele holds an Associate Degree in Legal Administration and Office Management from The University of Akron and a Certificate in Paralegal Studies from David N. Myers University. She was part of the inaugural group of OSBA Certified Paralegals in 2007.

Michele resides in North Royalton with her family.

Education

A.D., The University of Akron