Natalie Paolucci (née Browning) practices in the areas of estate planning and probate and real estate law. Prior to joining the firm as an associate, she gained invaluable experience working as a law clerk at the firm for over a year.

Natalie holds a B.A. in political science from the University of Akron and a J.D. from the University of Akron School of Law, graduating magna cum laude. She was a recipient of the Board of Trustees Scholarship, recognized as an Honors Scholar, and received the CALI Excellence for the Future Award in UCC Sales. During her time in law school, Natalie served as the Executive Editor of Production for the Akron Law Review and worked as a summer associate for the Community Legal Aid Services in Akron. Prior to attending law school, she interned for the Ohio Judicial Conference.

Originally from Columbus, Natalie now calls Akron home. In her free time, she enjoys hiking, lifting, playing tennis, and baking.
