William Peseski is an attorney with a background in civil litigation defense. He focuses his practice on General Civil Litigation, Commercial Litigation, and Insurance Litigation Defense. Licensed in Ohio and the corresponding federal jurisdictions, Mr. Peseski has successfully represented clients and companies at trial, mediation, and other various administrative proceedings.

Outside of the courtroom, Mr. Peseski is a volunteer mentor with Minds Matter of Cleveland, a non-profit organization working to overcome the education gap that holds back high-performing, low-income high school students. William and his family reside in Munson Township, with their four rescue animals.
