

ZACHARY JOHNSON

zjohnson@mggmlpa.com

Zachary Johnson is a legal assistant and paralegal in the firm's labor and employment practice group. He has extensive experience in customer service and legal research. In his previous role as a paralegal, he prepared patent applications, declarations and power of attorney's, processing responses to Office Actions, IDS', Notice of Allowances, Issue Fee's, and corresponding with foreign associates to pay all maintenance fees, consulted with clients to protect the intellectual property rights of their inventions in the U.S., and all participating countries of the PCT, monitoring up-coming due dates for all pending applications during each phases of prosecution and supporting several attorneys.

Zach is expecting his B.A. in liberal arts studies from The Ohio State University and Associate of Applied Business degree in Paralegal Studies from Cuyahoga Community College in June.

Education

B.A., The Ohio State University
(expected June 2023)

Associate of Applied Business
degree in Paralegal Studies,
Cuyahoga Community College
(expected June 2023)