

Alternative Dispute Resolution

While we have a strong record of courtroom victories, it's important to recognize that over 95% of civil cases are settled before trial in today's legal landscape. Acknowledging this trend, Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), especially when implemented early, can significantly reduce costs and provide certainty in an otherwise uncertain process.

Mansour Gavin's ADR group offers mediation, arbitration, and neutral evaluation services to lawyers, litigants, courts, and businesses seeking to resolve both simple and complex disputes. With almost a century of combined litigation experience, our ADR team handles a wide range of civil disputes, including business conflicts, employment issues, personal injury and product liability claims, fiduciary, probate and trust claims, real estate and zoning disputes, and more. We focus on evaluating the most effective strategies for all parties involved, aiming to achieve the best possible outcomes while minimizing costs, time, and stress associated with legal matters.

We collaborate with parties and their lawyers both before litigation and after filing to mediate issues and evaluate claims before they escalate into costly and time-consuming litigation. Additionally, our services include acting as neutral arbitrators in private party claims and serving as court-appointed or private mediators in cases pending before courts or regulatory bodies. We also assist businesses in developing organizational procedures and guidelines for using arbitration and mediation to resolve internal disputes.

Group Attorneys

Charles T. Brown